

Please read this Privacy Notice carefully as this sets out the basis on which any personal data we collect from you, or that you provide to us, will be processed by us. By proceeding with our services you agree to the terms of this Privacy Notice.

Introduction McSharry Foley Ltd is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. We wish to be transparent on how we process your data and show you that we are accountable with the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) in relation to not only processing your data but ensuring you that you understand your rights as a client. It is the intention of this Privacy Notice to explain to you the information practices of McSharry Foley Ltd in relation to the information we collect about you. When we refer to 'we' it is McSharry Foley Ltd.

For the purposes of the GDPR the data controller is: (Name) McSharry Foley Ltd (Address) Stephen Street, Sligo

Who are we? We are Insurance Brokers. We provide advice, insurance quotations and arrange contracts of insurance and related payment transactions on behalf of clients in relation to general insurance products, including Motor, Property, Business and Liability Insurance.

Our Data Protection Officer / GDPR Owner and data protection representative(s) can be contacted directly as follows:

(Name) Siobhan McSharry (Email) dataprotection@mcsharryfoley.ie (Tel) 0818 946677 (0818 WHOOPS) / 071 9142499

Purpose for processing your data Why we are processing your data? Our legal basis.

In order for us to provide you with our general insurance broking services we need to collect personal data in order to advise you, provide you with insurance quotations and arrange any contracts of insurance or related payment transactions on your behalf with Insurers / Insurance Providers. Our reason (lawful reason) for processing your data under the GDPR is:

Legal basis – McSharry Foley Ltd needs to process your data as this is necessary in relation to a contract of insurance or related transaction to which the individual has entered into, or because the individual has asked for something to be done so they can enter into a contract of insurance, with an Insurer / Insurance Provider. In any event, we are committed to ensuring that the information we collect and use is appropriate for this purpose, and does not constitute an invasion of your privacy.

How will McSharry Foley Ltd use the personal data it collects about me? We will process (collect, store and use) the information you provide in a manner compatible with the GDPR. We will endeavour to keep your information accurate and up to date, and not keep it for longer than is necessary.

Special Categories of personal data & data on criminal convictions and offences If we collect any special categories of personal data (e.g. health, religious beliefs, racial, ethnic origin – financial information is not classified as a special category)) – we will ensure the following:

Explicit consent – we will obtain your explicit consent as part of your request for an insurance quotation.

We only process special categories of personal data, and data on criminal convictions and offences including penalty points, where it is necessary to enable us to provide you with an insurance quotation as requested by you and, if instructed by you, for us to arrange a contract of insurance on your behalf with the Insurer / Insurance Provider whom you have chosen.

Who are we sharing your data with?

1. Insurers / Insurance Providers: When you request an insurance quotation from us, we will need to share your personal data with the Insurers / Insurance Providers with whom we hold agency appointments. When you enter into a contract of insurance or related finance transaction with that Insurer / Insurance Provider they also become a controller of your personal data for the purposes outlined in their privacy policy. Further information on how they protect your personal data may be found in their privacy policy on their websites(s) and/or with their policy documentation for your contract of insurance. We may also continue to share your personal data with the Insurer / Insurance Provider to enable them to manage and administer your contract of insurance and / or related finance transaction, and for the prevention and detection of fraud.

2. Your Representatives: Any party that you have given us permission to speak to (such as a relative, friend or legal advisor) and in certain circumstances other people insured under your contract of insurance (such as a named driver or joint insured).

3. Government, Statutory and Regulatory Bodies: State regulators and authorities such as the Data Protection Commission, the Revenue Commissioners, the Central Bank of Ireland and the Financial Services & Pensions Ombudsman; Law Enforcement Agencies such as An Garda Síochána and the Criminal Assets Bureau. Industry bodies such as the Motor Insurers Bureau of Ireland and the Personal Injuries Assessment Board.

4. Business / Asset transfer: If we, or any of our business or assets, are the subject of a proposed transfer or sale, we may disclose personal data of our customers to the prospective transferee or purchaser; and on a transfer or sale, or in the event of a merger, reorganisation, receivership, winding up or similar event, the personal data of our customers will be one of the transferred assets.

5. Third Parties: We may need to pass and / or allow access to the system containing your personal data to third-party service providers contracted by us to provide us with: our Insurance Broker Software and Quotation System & e-Quote Trading Platform, our IT System Support & Maintenance, our Offsite Data Backup, our Telephone Communications and Offsite Recording & Backup, our Confidential Document Destruction, Compliance / Business Development / Systems & Marketing advice and Statutory Audit Services. Any such third parties are obliged to keep your details securely, and to use them only to fulfil the service that they provide to us. When they no longer need your data to fulfil this service, they will dispose of the details in line with our data protection policy. If we wish to pass your sensitive personal data onto a third party we will only do so once we have obtained your explicit consent, unless legally required to do otherwise. If we transfer personal data to a third party or outside the EU we as the data controller will ensure the recipient (processor or another controller) has provided the appropriate safeguards and on condition that enforceable data subject rights and effective legal remedies for you the data subject are available.
